*The best to the best
George Johnson*

Dedication

In deep appreciation of your genuine interest in the activities and growth of our nursing school and hospital, personal interest in our problems, and because of our love and respect for you, we hereby dedicate the Epitome of 1955 to you, Dr. George Johnson.

In Appreciation

To Miss Thelma Beia, we deeply appreciate her kindness, patience, and sincerity, in helping us with our problems. She has won a place in each of our hearts, for her unfailing faith has guided us through these three years.

Last Will And Testament

State of North Carolina
County of New Hanover
City of Wilmington
James Walker Hospital
School of Nursing

We, the Seniors of James Walker Nursing School, possessors of 23 stout hearts, above average mental ability, well-trained appetites, and unusual senior dignity, being about to emerge from the protective shell which has harbored us for at least three long years, and enter into the large world about which we have been told such unbelievable things, do make and publish our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our class sponsor, Mrs. Beia, we leave our heart felt thanks and deep appreciation for the numerous things she has done for the class of '55.

ARTICLE II

To the incoming seniors, we leave our senior dignity and privileges and, above all, our intelligence.

ARTICLE III

To the incoming juniors, we leave our hard earned brains, and hope that with the help of this legacy they will someday become dignified seniors.

ARTICLE IV

Section I	To Miss Masten and Miss Britt, we bequeath our deepest appreciation for their guidance in helping us reach our goal.
Section II	To Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Newkirk, we leave a new flashlight battery and two G. E. hearing aids for the days you cannot see and hear as well as you have in the past three years.

ARTICLE V

Section I	I, Kitty Barefoot, leave my determination to get what I want when I want it to Len Sidbury.
Section II	We, Carol Bordeaux and Sarah Brown, leave our excessive energy to Deane Peterson.
Section III	I, Gwen Chadwick, bequeath the Vance Air to anyone who can "shake, rattle, and roll."
Section IV	I, Norma Covil, leave my chicken house laugh to Marilyn Cain.
Section V	I, Becky Griffen, leave my calm and cool manner to Peggy Nethercutt.
Section VI	I, Mary Harris, leave all my love affairs to Erna Cooke, if she thinks she can handle them.
Section VII	I, Bettye Howard, leave my "don't care" attitude to Helen Cavenaugh.
Section VIII	I, Hildred Howard, bequeath my set ways to Dean Cavenaugh.
Section IX	I, Nell Kelly, leave my 11 and 12 o'clock passes to anyone who thinks they will enjoy them as much as I.
Section X	I, Mary Knowles, leave my ability to be an old maid and raise cats to Glennis McLaurin.

Last Will And Testament

Section XI I, Margaret Willis, leave my night life to Faye Justice.

Section XII I, Pat Vickers, leave my music talent to Lucy Groat in hopes she will enjoy it from 5 to 10 each P. M.

Section XIII I, Linda Peterson, leave my good times in Raleigh to any of the Juniors who would like to tackle them.

Section XIV I, Janice Pate, leave my graceful walk to Betty Gray.

Section XV I, Virginia Wells, leave my slim girlish figure to Jean Mewborn.

Section XVI I, Helen Murray, leave my ability to quarrel to Lou Ellen Bell.

Section XVII I, Becky Salter, leave my Atlantic drawl to Derotha Gore.

Section XVIII I, Kathy Moye, leave a challenge for anybody longwinded enough to try to out talk me.

Section XIX I, Alyce Murphy, leave my ability to write poetry to Susie Simmons.

Section XX I, Marie Robinson, leave my ability to stretch the truth to suit herself to Penny Toler.

Section XXII I, Cynthia Robbins leave my innocent look in class to Brook Carson.

Section XXIII I, Elaine Jordan, leave all my catty remarks to anyone who can purr.

Class History

It was back in the fall of 52
On the second of September,
Our class came to J. W. H.
That date we all remember.

Some of our big sister's met us
Each had a friendly smile.
They were never on the second
But mostly on fourth floor.

The next week the classes started,
Such subjects we had never heard.
We remember part of the stuff
But not every little word.

We walked over to the college
A load of books on our arms.
Such a heavy load to carry
But it didn't do us any harm.

At 12:30 we'd come back
Hurrying back to lunch,
Roast beef and dressing every day
For such a hungry bunch.

Thanksgiving finally came
Everybody hurried away
To see Mom and Dad again
For they had an extra day.

Classes would start once more
Back to our books again.
These were long tiresome days
For us and our teachers then.

Finally we started working
With shaky hands and pretended cheer
The first thing the patient asked.
'Honey, how long have you been here?'

On May the twenty-ninth
A great event took place
We received our stiff white caps
With a nod and a smiling face.

We'll never forget that time
We'll never forget that night
We were happy preclinicals
You should have seen the sight.

Miss Dixon gave Marie her lamp
She took it by the handle
As she was walking down the steps,
Off fell her little candle.

After vacation time had ended
We worked eight hours a day
With no eating while on duty
Without a cent of pay.

On the second of September
This was another happy day.
We received our small black bands
We didn't have much to say.

Proudly we wore our caps
To our work and to our classes.
In Obstetrics and Pathology
We all were happy lasses.

In February we had our banquet
The seniors colors were pink and white
The azalea room was enchanting
Bathed in soft candle light.

We received our wider bands
In September of Fifty-four.
We were Senior students then
Our P. C. and Junior days were o'er.

Later they sent us to Dix Hill
To study and to work.
For three months we survived
Without Mrs. Griffin and Newkirk.

No prying housemother
To check on us at night.
They never read our mail
Nor turned off our lights.

Class History

No one was there to take our names
They never locked us out.
They thought of us as people
We hope they did no doubt.

Do you remember your first day
When Lillian met you at the door ?
She had a sack upon her head
Poor thing, the clothes she wore.

All of our class did return
Much to our teachers surprise
No one lost their mind
Nor was hit on the eye.

Remember our graduation
On that warm night in May
We were all so happy
Some were thinking of their wedding day.

Only three months more
To work here without pay
The days passed by so fast
With much to do and say.

There must have been a guiding hand
To help us through these days.
I know God must have been present
When the dark days came our way.

We've spent many happy days
In this old nurses' home
Your time will pass my friend
How fast our three years have flown.

Marie Robinson
Class Historian

Class Poem

Early in the morning
We start to work.
From every little task
We will never shirk.

First comes the temps
Then liquids and pills.
Each with a purpose
But all to cure ills.

Next comes the food
Arranged on a tray.
Carried by two hands
Only three times a day.

Usually there are treatments.
Some packs to apply.
Or enemas to give
"Not again, the patient will sigh.

Then linen to put out,
Several beds to make.
Fresh water to give
Again temps to take.

To see each patient
A doctor will come.
Checking all charts,
Leaving orders on some.

We help the doctor
Patch cuts and bruises.
Our little carts have
Just what he uses.

We assist the doctors
In every known way.
Day in and day out,
We heed what they say

Back to the desk.
There's charting to be done,
Reports to be written
Before the hour of one.

Wet diapers we change
And babys to feed.
Formulas to fix,
Oh, the attention they need.

For fifteen minutes
The babies we show.
The mamas and daddies
Are very proud we know.

Our hands stay busy
Each hour of the day.
By helping the patient
In every possible way.

Dearest Lou,

It has been wonderful knowing you these past two years. I shall always remember you as a very good friend. Remember all of those nice times at the beach and then out to Bettys house, I shall never forget them.
Heres wishing you much success and happiness in your profession and personal life also.

Love ya.
